

Full-Time Children's Librarian Burlington Public Library

Hours: 37.5/week
Salary: $26.39/hour

Come be part of the Burlington Team!

The Burlington Public Library is seeking a full-time Children's Librarian to run our vibrant and beloved Children's Department. This position is responsible for planning and implementing engaging programs and outreach for children from birth through grade 4, as well as overseeing collection development and cataloging of Children's materials.

We have an opening for a full-time Children's librarian to run our vibrant Children's department. Additional responsibilities include creating displays and passive program activities in the Children's department, providing Reader's Advisory, assisting at the Circulation desk, representing the library at community events and partnering with staff members for large-scale library programs.

We are a friendly, enthusiastic staff that values creativity, collaboration and a genuine commitment to serving our community. We enjoy working together to find new and innovative ways to promote our award-winning library and bring joy to our patrons. Our ideal candidate has experience planning programs, embraces creativity, works well in a team environment and is committed to meeting our mission of providing exceptional customer service. We encourage ongoing learning and professional development and support staff in attending webinars and trainings relevant to their position.
